

COMMUTER CANDIDATES

Isaac Helland

Commuter Candidate

Students are only just starting to realize how important their representation to the administration is -funding for clubs and activities, official policy matters, and student representation are all critical roles played by ASB. Senators need to be ready to lead the charge in promulgating ideas that will guide the campus for years to come. Those who know me will tell you that I've never been shy about my opinions or about standing for what is right, and as the commuter senator, I will boldly stand for the interests of commuters and of the student body to maintain Corban's commitment to excellency, our fun-loving campus, and the collective interest we all take in fostering a Jesus-centered community.

Matthew Rawlins

Commuter Candidate

I understand what it means to be a commuter, the ins and outs, the struggle and the advantages.
I can effectively communicate our (commuter) needs on behalf of my peers.
I am a team player, great at the idea/brainstorm process.
I am great at listening and being an advocate.

BALYO/DAVIDSON

Josiah Araki

BaD Candidate

I want to be a Senator in order to get a hands-on experience with leadership and to have a chance to gain a better understanding of how Student Government in Corban works. As a Political Science Major, I'm looking for as many opportunities as possible to gain experience in teamwork, problem-solving, and community outreach.

Juan Arriaga Juarez

BaD Candidate

I want to be a senator because I want to represent my brothers and sisters of Baylo/Davidson. As a senator, the needs of my brethren will be at the top of my priorities. My heart is filled with passion for serving and helping others.

Sarah Falardeau

BaD Candidate

As senator, I will strive to be an approachable figure who believes in supporting the visions that both the men and women of The B.a.D. community hold. I want to be available to listen and engage with others to see these ideas come to life. I will be working daily to better the Corban community, so that others may be represented and heard. I am dedicated to put in more work than is required of me to ensure that the majority of Corban's students and faculty are happy with a solution. From my experience as team captain for high school basketball and track, I realized how important it is for leaders and followers to be on the same page. I plan on unifying Corban's faculty and student body to resolve important issues we face during the 2018-19 school year.

Brendan Fugere

BaD Candidate

My calling in this life is to stand up for what is good and fight so that other people may be heard in politics. I would be honored and thrilled to have that opportunity here and now at Corban to represent you and make sure that your opinion matters.

Tacie Gerdes

BaD Candidate

College is a place where people can redefine themselves the way they want. I am outgoing, but was defined as timid by former classmates. I am caring, although people never noticed; and I am confident, even though I was dubbed as the girl afraid of her shadow. I want to show people who I truly am, and I believe being a senator can do that. On a side note, I love to cook, and I love caring for my community through that. (If anyone wants me to make them anything, I will. Just as long as you bring me the ingredients).

Zurisadai Herrejon Gonzalez

BaD Candidate

To be Senator would be the opportunity to serve and listen to my fellow mates like and unlike me. It would be vocalizing the ideas, concerns, and opinions of Baylo and Davidson. It would be a pleasure to represent them and meet them all! If elected Senator, my door will always be open to new solutions and ideas.

Keiko Miyasato

BaD Candidate

I am a Senior credit wise, a Junior grade wise, a Sophomore in the Education Department, and a Freshman emotionally. Corban has given me the ability to relate to most students because I don't really know what's going on half the time but I still pull it together and use my leadership skills to listen to the needs of others and give them a voice.

Emanuel Montanez

BaD Candidate

As a student athlete living within the Baylo/Davidson Housing Complex, for a 3rd consecutive year, I have interacted with students and athletes alike. Throughout various communication exchanges I have had the opportunity to hear and express various opinions and honest judgments of their opinions of Corban. As a Senator, the opportunity to act as an advisor to the Student Trustees, and Board Staff would allow me to reach out to students and gather information on their concerns and acting in their best interest, balancing and vetting school executive decisions ultimately advocating for the student voice. For many incoming students and even returners, it was the welcoming, friendly, honest environment of Corban University that brought them here. I see this as an extremely vital asset in which I want to serve, and continue the tradition through representing those within the Baylo/Davidson area. As a determined, goal oriented, approachable, social student athlete, I see this as an opportunity for not myself but for the community of Baylo/Davidson to continually to build and construct a community that will strive for years to come.

Alicia Uchytel

BaD Candidate

I love Corban! With anything though it can always be improved and become better. That is why I want to be senator so that I can make the place I love even better. I want to listen to everyone and hear their ideas on how we can make Corban better. I want to make sure that all of the student voice is heard. I want people to feel like their ideas are being heard and considered.

Austin Zahn

BaD Candidate

I would like to be a senator to represent my dorm as best I can and to also grow as leader.

PVG

Abby Samkutty

PVG Candidate

Something that has always stood out to me about PVG is the overwhelming sense of community. I never thought I would find a second place I could without hesitation consider my home. I would feel extremely privileged and humbled to represent my PVG family as their senator. I'm so excited for the opportunity to foster community as we seek to become more like Christ. I love people and I love listening! I would feel honored to have people come to me with their ideas and suggestions, no matter how crazy you may think it is! My RA introduced me to the seemingly bizarre idea of Nutella burgers: a cheeseburger with Nutella and bananas on it. I was shocked by how much I liked it, and now I am a strong advocate for them! I would feel incredibly blessed if I were to be a voice for your unique ideas, just like Nutella burgers! I look forward to seeing what God has in store for PVG this year. Thanks for your consideration!

Christopher Still

PVG Candidate

I want to be senator because I believe this is a great opportunity to get to know the amazing people of PVG better, and help make this year great!

Emily Toombs

PVG Candidate

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood... and I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference. – Robert Frost. In this life that we live there are many different choices we can make, some good some bad. But whichever choice we make, we are heading down that road. I as a person have made many choices, not all of which I am proud of. But each one has helped me see who I am in Christ and what he is leading me to. This position in Senate is another one of those choices in my life. It's a choice that whichever way it goes will help me grow and mature. As a future Elementary Educator, I wish to gain as much leadership, and communicative abilities as I can to help better myself not only for my life, but the lives of the children I will be ministering to. Any position of authority or power to have a positive outcome requires mental strength, emotional communication, and knowledge of the highest authority. If I am elected, these are the values that I will hold myself to

FARRAR/AAGARD

Hallie Banta

Farrar/Aagard Candidate

It would be my pleasure to serve the Aagard community as a representative in the larger context of Corban University. I would like to meet and connect with people living in other dorm areas as well as commuters. As a senator, I would like to find out what interests, values, and needs my fellow Aagardians have. Serving in this way is an opportunity to make a difference on the campus for the students.

Julia Basarab

Farrar/Aagard Candidate

I want to be a senator because it gives me a chance to advocate for student involvement. As a freshman, it is easy to get caught up in the fear of speaking out. But I want my fellow freshman and everyone else to know that they have a voice that is meant to be heard. Through participating in sports/work teams, I've learned how to communicate properly and listen to people to work together in the best way possible.

Kelton Hedstrom

Farrar/Aagard Candidate

Jesus told His disciples the world would know them by their love for one another (John 13:35). If elected a Corban University senator (or not), my goal is to sponsor and nurture a community known by and for its love. Being a senator is something I see as an incredible opportunity and responsibility, one I would be honored and excited to fill. Corban is more than a college I attend... It is my home, our home. To better this community is a task every person should take on as their own. It is a challenge I embrace. If elected, I will strive to lead through both action and example towards making Corban a living example of John 13:35: abundant in love, overflowing with joy, alive in Christ. Together, we can achieve this.

Andrew Sagert

Farrar/Aagard Candidate

The student body must be represented on campus. Last year the administration decided unilaterally without the consent of the student body to change the housing policy to only allow four year students to live off campus. After hearing Aric Wood's rousing speech last year during ASB elections I was inspired to become a strong voice for the student body. The administration for too long has ignored your voice! If elected senator for Fraagard I will let your voice be heard in the Senate! In the past couple of years the Fraagard community has been ridiculed by the rest of campus, as your Fraagard representative in the Senate I will fight to promote a better sense of unity for not just Fraagrad but across this entire campus as a whole.

Andrew Stevens

Farrar/Aagard Candidate

I'm running for senate because I care deeply about Fraagard and want to do whatever I can to help both the people of Fraagard and the rest of the student body. I would be proud to represent Farrar in the senate this year.

Malia Suppan

Farrar/Aagard Candidate

I want to get more involved with the Corban community and I feel like the Senate would be a good fit for as I want to support my form and the residents there any way I can.

Jade Venegas

Farrar/Aagard Candidate

I am confident I will be a great senator for Aagard because I am passionate about wanting to represent our Aagard family. I want to be a voice for Aagard and I want to be loud about it. I want to dedicate my time to events and to representing the people at Aagard!!

TOWNHOUSES

Kaitlyn Arnold

Townhouse Candidate

Hey friends! I am looking forward to my final year at Corban and I would love the opportunity to be the voice of the townhouses. By now you have probably seen my face on campus at some point, but if you have not, know that I am so excited to serve. Serve the Lord, serve others, and serve the townhouses as your 2018-2019 senator. We are all different, each created as a masterpiece, bringing many things to the table and I welcome the chance to combine ideas, talents, and anything else that would bring us together as a body of believers making the community of the townhouses a family. Given the task, I look forward to serving the townhouses as our voice in ASB, making this year great, and getting to know all of you better!

MULTI-CULTURAL

Oai Kenelak

Multicultural Candidate

I want to be a senator in order to be like a connector between International students and Corban. I want to share to Corban what International students need that Corban is supposed to provide. mostly, speak out for international students and if possible, give suggestion to Corban as well.
